About Us

The Israelite Men's Association is a membership-based organization. It began as a health initiative in March 2014, when 25 men met at Congregation HaShabah Yisrael, in Charlotte, North Carolina. The mission at that time was to encourage Israelite men to take more responsibility for the management and treatment of their health. The goals were threefold:

1. Create a culture of cooperation and collaboration.
2. Develop a national framework and platform for ongoing dialogue.
3. Draw spiritual strength through Shabbat observance.

Israelite Men's Retreat, beginning March 2015, in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. The goals for the retreat were the following:

- Discuss common concerns.
- Identify projects and programs that would be of mutual interests to Israelite men.
- Draw spiritual strength through Shabbat observance.
- Establish a time-line to develop organizational by-laws.

The Israelite Men's Association annual retreat is an initiative of the Israelite Men's Association (IMA). The IMA is currently governed by a seven- member steering committee.

Because of that weekend experience, the group agreed to establish an
